Re: Follow-up on items discussed during Unilateral Administrative Order ("UAO")
Conference on June 30, 2005, regarding the Gulfco Marine Maintenance Site,
CERCLA Docket No. 06-05-05.

Dear Mr. Miller and Ms. Nann:

I am writing to follow-up on the status of certain items discussed during the Unilateral Administrative Order ("UAO") conference for the Gulfco Marine Maintenance Site (the "Site") held on June 30, 2005. During the conference, the following items were discussed, and EPA agreed to research certain information and respond to the parties. Can you please provide a date when a response to the following items will be forthcoming:

1. Mr. Miller said he would advise the parties regarding when EPA intends to publish notice of the availability of the Administrative Record as required in 40 CFR 300.815(a).
2. Ms. Nann said she would provide the parties with a copy of the notice of the UAO that was given to the State before the UAO was issued as required by statute.
3. Ms. Nann said she would advise Dow of the status of the outstanding Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") requests, including the request for documents relating to Parker Drilling. The RIN numbers for the two outstanding requests are 6-RIN-00727-04 (includes the documents for Parker Drilling Offshore Company, Technip—KTI Corp and
